Subject: Keep up with updates and deadlines from your phone

Pre-header: With mobile access for your transactions

Need to take transactions with you?

There's an app for that.

We all know that a home sale doesn't get paused just because you're away from your computer. It's essential to be able to take your deals with you—so you never miss an important update or deadline.

Good news! As a [Association name] member you have free access to an app to help you with that.

zipForm® Mobile allows you access to your transactions via your phone, so you can take them wherever you go—and can manage them with all the functionality you're used to via one handy app.
